

Trans* On Campus Student Summary

updated 8/6/14

Below is a very brief overview of the current status of trans* inclusion for common student campus interactions, including any available workarounds where formal systems are not yet fully inclusive. Longer descriptions will be available in our forthcoming DU Trans on Campus Guide*.

This summary will be regularly updated, as the DU TransAllies working group identifies, confirms, and/or improves DU policies and practices on gender identity and expression equity. If you would like to be involved in this research and advocacy effort, and/or if you know of additional situations or updates, please contact us at lgbtqa@du.edu

activity	status and suggestion
applications	Academic and employment applications can be considered legal contracts and are the basis for other legal records. Therefore, you must use your full legal name .
athletics	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • DU has no specific policies/practices for screening/enforcing identity for gendered/sexed club and intramural sports. • Varsity sports are governed by NCAA policies.
bathrooms & lockerrooms	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • DU has no specific policy on usage, leaving you free to use bathrooms or lockerrooms of your choice, but not guaranteeing others won't question/challenge choices. • We have published a list and interactive map of all-gender and single occupant restrooms: www.du.edu/pride/resources • The "gold level" lockerrooms at the Ritchie Center provide more privacy for showers and changing; but do cost more. CME LGBTIQ&A Services can assist with navigating the waitlists for these more limited spaces.
classrooms	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Course rosters and online learning platforms are populated with legal names. • Students should contact instructors in advance; see sample note below.
email address	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Your DU username and firstname.lastname@ default email address are based on your official legal record; and at present cannot be changed. • For students, the address is not actually an email account, and must be forwarded to an off-campus account (e.g., gmail, yahoo, etc). We suggest creating that address in your chosen name, and offering that address directly whenever possible; DU folks will write to, and receive from, your chosen name.
greek societies (social fraternities & sororities)	DU does not yet have specific policy/practice governing gender eligibility. National organization guidelines, if any, apply.
	continued on reverse...

healthcare	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Mental health services are available through the Health & Counseling Center (HCC, www.du.edu/duhealth), and the Graduate School of Professional Psychology's Clinic (www.du.edu/gspg/services). • The HCC offers basic medical care as well, not including surgery. • HCC electronic medical records can add notations for correct gender identity and chosen name. • We are in the process of determining specific insurance coverages for student and employees plans and providers.
housing	On-campus default room and roommate assignments are based on legal sex. Contact HRE Asst Director—Occupancy directly to add “preferred gender” to housing software, and discuss case-by-case assignment options. www.du.edu/housing student records	Based on initial application information, all student records—ID cards, digital username, class rosters, online learning platforms and DU webcentral (digital portal)—default to that legal name. We are exploring centralized work-arounds; but for now you'll need to navigate the official name vs casual name situations.

For these and other situations, CME's LGBTIQ&A Services can help with advice and/or advocacy. See online info, and contact details below.

We invite you to explore a growing set of resources on the DU Pride Portal: www.du.edu/pride

Sample email to instructors below re: chosen name and correct gender/pronoun, that we suggest sending before first class. Feel free to copy, paste and fill in/adapt for your use.

Dear [appropriate title and professor's name -- e.g., Dr. Salazar]

I am a student in your upcoming [class name, course number and meeting day/time], and wanted to write with an important request regarding my presence, participation and safety in your class.

Although I will likely appear on the class roster as [legal name], I go by [chosen name]; and I would greatly appreciate your using that name and [correct] pronouns with me, and modeling the same to the rest of the class.

If you have any questions re: University policy around gender identity/expression inclusion, and/or for additional support around accurately and inclusively engaging these issues, please feel free to contact Dr Thomas Walker, Director of Educational Programs & LGBTIQA Services at the University's Center for Multicultural Excellence [, who is cc'd on this message –if that's the case]: Thomas.walker@du.edu; phone: 303.871.4614, and/or visit www.du.edu/pride .

Thank you very much for your understanding. I'm looking forward to your class!

[Your name
Your email address]